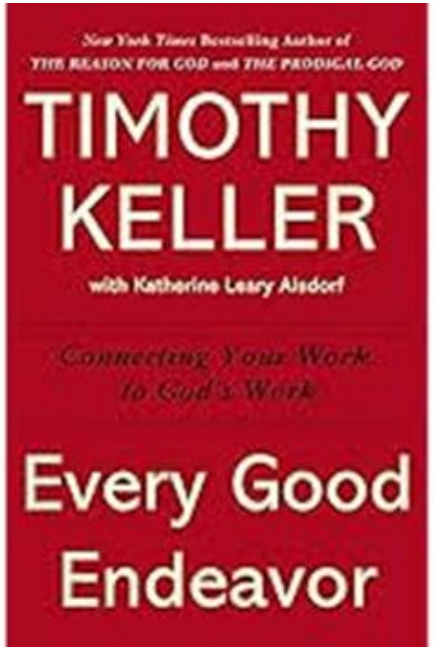
July:	New Compass and Power	(11&12)



Chapter 11: A new Compass for work

- Encounter with unethical choices, and the limitations of non- conformity
- A different view of Humanity - Assigning value to “Resources/Contacts”
- A different source of guidance - Get Wisdom
- A different audience - Christ is who we work for
- Christian Ethics in vocation - What we bring to work

Questions for Chapter 11:

1. Have you experienced unethical behavior in your workplace? What did you do? Did you experience limiting consequences?
2. Why is it sometimes hard to trust that God will provide a way, when limited by not making an unethical choice
3. Is it true that we can see people we work with as resources, and that view can affect how we value them? Explain or Example
4. How do we get wisdom from God.

Chapter 12: New Power of Work

Work under the Work

- What is driving the work we do

The power of true passion

- Gospel passion is living for Christ, dying to self

The power of deep rest

- Rest restores our passion

Rest under the rest

- True rest comes through the finished work of Christ, no need to prove ourselves

- Nunc Dimittis…" I can die happy now"

Questions for Chapter 12:

- Have you felt that freedom in your work? Explain.
- Do you struggle with rest. Why, and what do you need to do to change that?
- Keller says “it is liberating to accept that God is fully aware of where you are at any moment, and that by serving the work you’ve been given you are serving him. How have you experienced this?
