 - What sticks out to you (words, phrases, concepts, themes)?
 - Why do these things stick out to you?
 - Does it remind you of other Bible passages?
2. Examine the context of the passage:
 - What's happening in the book before and after the passage?
 - What's going on in history at the time of the passage?
 - What type of literature or genre is the passage?
3. What was one of your main takeaways from Sunday's sermon?

INTERPRETATION

4. What questions does this passage raise for you?
5. Who is the rider on the white horse (19:11-16)? What are some of the descriptions given about him? Which stands out most to you? Why?

APPLICATION

6. How should you apply this passage to your life? Consider how it applies to your thoughts, attitudes, habits, decisions, relationship with God, and relationship with others.
7. The great multitude in heaven worship God for his "salvation and glory and power" (19:1). Where have you seen God showing his salvation, glory, and power in these recent chapters of Revelation? Take time today or this week to praise him for his salvation, glory, and power

REVELATION 20

Read this week's passage aloud before discussing together.

OBSERVATION

1. What are your personal observations about the passage?
 - What sticks out to you (words, phrases, concepts, themes)?
 - Why do these things stick out to you?
 - Does it remind you of other Bible passages?
2. Examine the context of the passage:
 - What's happening in the book before and after the passage?
 - What's going on in history at the time of the passage?
 - What type of literature or genre is the passage?
3. What was one of your main takeaways from Sunday's sermon?

INTERPRETATION

4. What questions does this passage raise for you?
5. What are one or two things from this chapter that seem unclear? What are one or two things that seem very clear?

APPLICATION

6. How should you apply this passage to your life? Consider how it applies to your thoughts, attitudes, habits, decisions, relationship with God, and relationship with others.
7. How can you live this week like a "great white throne" of judgment is coming (v. 11)? Should this affect your praise? Your gratitude? Your growth in faithfulness? Your evangelism? Share one thing you want to focus on this week in order to be more prepared for that day of judgment.

 - What's going on in history at the time of the passage?
 - What type of literature or genre is the passage?
3. What was one of your main takeaways from Sunday's sermon?

INTERPRETATION

4. What questions does this passage raise for you?
5. What strikes you as important about the holy city (v. 10-27)? Why?

APPLICATION

6. How should you apply this passage to your life? Consider how it applies to your thoughts, attitudes, habits, decisions, relationship with God, and relationship with others.
7. Peter tells Christians that we have "an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time" (1 Pet. 1:4). Our inheritance is being guarded, and we are being guarded. Revelation 21 is a beautiful picture of that inheritance. How can this picture of your future and God's promise that he will protect fuel you to endure well this week (in parenting, personal worship, suffering, job, serving others, etc.)?

3. What was one of your main takeaways from Sunday's sermon?

INTERPRETATION

4. What questions does this passage raise for you?
5. What do you see from Revelation 22:1-5 that echoes Genesis 1-2 (the garden of Eden)? Why is this significant?

APPLICATION

6. How should you apply this passage to your life? Consider how it applies to your thoughts, attitudes, habits, decisions, relationship with God, and relationship with others.
7. Tim Keller said, "Human beings are absolutely hope-shaped creatures. The way you live now is completely controlled by what you believe about your future" ("The New Heaven and New Earth," 2009). How should this future vision of the new heaven and new earth affect the way you live this week? Do you have hope, endurance, and grace for others? How can you pray this week for God to strengthen your hope?
