Grandparents Ministry

Volume 16

May 2024

In Case You Were Wondering...

You will not find any events planned over the summer by Grandparents Ministry. Why is that, you might ask? Well, it's actually out of respect for you and your very busy schedules. We don't want to conflict with the many other summer events you will have going on. But . . .

STAY CONNECTED, GRANDPARENTS!

TWO WAYS TO KEEP IN TOUCH:

1. The Grandparents newsletter will continue monthly.
2. Mark your calendars now for September 9. "Corrie Ten Boom" is coming to College Park Church! Stay tuned for details.

AS YOU
HEAD INTO SUMMER...

Read on for new and not-so-new resources to help you grandparent well.

HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT...

... "GRAND MONDAY NIGHTS"?

Grand Monday Nights describes itself as a "free weekly webinar about intentional Christian grandparenting with new relevant topics each week." Learn how to nurture your grandchildren's faith and manage grandparenting obstacles. Always helpful. Always a blessing. Check It Out

... "RENEWANATION"?

RenewaNation exists to "transform our culture by giving children a biblical worldview." Resources include an excellent magazine twice a year and popular grandparenting books like Discipling Your Grandchildren, and Overcoming Grandparenting Barriers. Check It Out

... THE POWER OF CHRISTIAN BIOGRAPHIES?

Josh Mulvihill, author of many articles and books on intentional Christian grandparenting, recommends Christian biographies as an awesome tool to teach a biblical worldview to grandchildren. One of his top suggestions is Trial and Triumph, true stories from church history. Other biographies for kids could be from the Christian Heroes Series, the Sowers Series, or the Wild Brothers video series. Your older teen and young adult grandchildren will be stunned by the surprise outcome of the WWII story called Wounded Tiger or Unbroken.

... THE PODCAST "THE WORLD AND EVERYTHING IN IT"?

This daily podcast gives you "sound journalism grounded in facts and biblical truth." The program is trustworthy, succinct, and informative. It's a good way to start your day so you can interact with your family in an informed way later in the day. Many homeschoolers tune in to the podcast as part of their school day. In addition, each broadcast includes features on different topics of interest from politics to movies or even coffee-making. Highly recommended for a quick way to keep up with the news. Check It Out

... "PROTECT YOUNG EYES"?

Protect Young Eyes (PYE) is a website that exists to help create safer digital environments by staying up to date on the latest digital trends. Some of their wise adages are: "Delay is the way" or "Slow tech, not no tech." It's a great website providing webinars, an app, and powerful presentations with wise advice. PYE comes highly recommended by several College Park teachers. (Of course, run any ideas first through your children, the parents!) Check It Out

Take a quick look in case you missed it:

The “ Hot Potato” event was a Saturday to remember! Thank you, Bob & Karen Pourcho!

Potatoes here. Potatoes there. Great décor! Thanks, Jo Ann Dinsmore!

Fruit, muffins, and pastries: A continental breakfast delight! Thanks, Peggy Sweeney and Cheryl Bartemus.

10ofThose filled the resource table.
Thanks, Margaret!

The team behind it all. Thank you,
College Park leaders!

AND FINALLY, A GOOD AND SAFE SUMMER TO ALL.
