Something new with a bonus!

Monday, Sept. 9, 2024 | 5:30-8 p.m.

Corrie ten Boom “visits” College Park through the nationally traveled, gifted impersonator Vickie Gaynier

WHO IS CORRIE TEN BOOM?

Corrie was a Dutch watchmaker who, along with her family, protected hundreds of Jews from arrest by the Nazis during World War II. Eventually Corrie and her family were betrayed and imprisoned, some losing their lives while in German concentration camps. Her life's story is told in her famous autobiography and movie, The Hiding Place.

WHO IS VICKIE GAYNIER?

Vickie was raised in west Texas. The Lord “pulled her out of a miry pit in the summer of 1975 on a psychiatric ward in Parkland Memorial Hospital” when she was just 23 years old. Vickie would say God gave her a “new song to sing.” She has become a story teller in the first person, presenting historical characters for over 28 years. Vickie and her ophthalmologist husband, Mike, now reside near Cincinnati where she performs Corrie ten Boom on a regular basis at the

Creation Museum and Ark Encounter.

LOOK!

Dr. Josh Mulvihill

Oh, and by the way, the use of Christian biographies is another tool for your grandparenting toolbox. Dr. Josh Mulvihill, an accomplished author and mentoring friend to our Grandparents Ministry, said in a recent podcast that the stories of these heroes of faith are powerful in helping your grands build a biblical worldview.

There will be an opportunity to add to your library from the resources shared by the book company 10ofThose, including the graphic novel version of the Corrie ten Boom story.
